You have the right to appeal this decision to the district Superintendent. To do so, contact the district's homeless liaison listed below within the next 14 working days to request a Dispute Form. You may provide written or verbal documentation to support your position, and may also seek the assistance of social services, advocates, and/or service providers in the dispute process. The Superintendent or designee will review all the evidence and will notify you of his/her decision within 5 working days following the review of your appeal.

If you are not satisfied with the Superintendent's decision, you may appeal to the Riverside County Office of Education. If you are not satisfied with the county office's decision, you may then appeal to the California Department of Education. The district's homeless liaison can assist you with this appeal.
