Our KEY to our Success is Showing Up...

Values & Expectations

The F.I.A.T.M. Group, Inc. was incorporated in 2005 as a call from parents who were concerned about the education and success of their children within their communities and the world at large.

T.E.A.C.H., NEXT LEVEL ATHLETICS ALLIANCE and S.A.A.P (Student Athlete Awareness Program), programs were implemented to provide academic tutoring, support and an athletic outlet for students.

Today, The F.I.A.T.M. Group Inc. is the only organization in the Inland Empire that focuses on the integration of athletics and academics.

Our KEY

The F.I.A.T.M. Group's Values and Expectations Mission is to nurture and develop successful students and athletes through educational programs. We work closely with our students by partnering with the appropriate public schools, social services agencies, local courts, law enforcement agencies and community organizations to ensure the academic and personal success of our students. We assist students from kindergarten through high school.

Our programs are structured to provide meals, tutoring, counseling, cultural awareness and personal development. Within the personal development component, we teach self-respect, respect for others, and unlock creative and artistic abilities that may otherwise be underutilized in our youth.
