RE: BHHS Journalism - Spring National High School Journalism Convention - Out-of-County Activity

We would like to request Board approval for the following Out-of-County activity:

- BHHS Journalism/April 24 – 27, 2019/Anaheim, CA
- This field trip will be made available to freshmen, sophomores, and juniors in Anaheim, California. This journalism convention is an incredible space for learning for both publications students and the adviser. Students will attend media tours or workshops or volunteer with the local committee, in addition to listening to the keynote speaker. Students and adviser will attend various breakout sessions taught by various journalism professionals. Students will compete in write-off sessions. Adviser will act as the lead judge for one write-off session, in addition to attending and leading the judging session in the evening. Students will attend more breakout sessions, in addition to the closing awards ceremony.
- As the adviser is on the local planning committee for this convention, she will also attend to her duties and responsibilities with the write-off team from Thursday through Saturday.
- We will drive in private cars from the high school to the hotel. Depending on the number of students attending, a parent may also be requested to drive in his/her private vehicle. Mrs. Doyle will chaperone.
- Description of Costs (include student fees and sub days needed): Hotel: $206.00 (at capacity); Registration: $99.00; Write-off: $20.00; Workshop/Media tour: $25.00; Substitute: $171.00/day.
